The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday Auguſt 19, to Tueſday Auguſt 22, 1758.

AT the Court at Kenſington, the 28th Day of July 1758,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS the Time limited by His Majeſty's Order in Council, of the Twenty Ninth of June laſt, For paying the reſpective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and alſo to all Able-bodied Landmen, who ſhould voluntarily enter themſelves in His Majeſty's Royal Navy; and likewiſe for paying the Rewards to Perſons diſcovering Seamen who ſhould conceal themſelves, will expire upon the Twelfth Day of Auguſt next; And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given, ſhould be continued to be paid for ſome Time longer; — His Majeſty doth therefore, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby Order, That the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to ſuch Seamen and Landmen reſpectively, who ſhall, on or before the Thirtieth Day of September next, enter themſelves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majeſty's Proclamation of the Fourth Day of January 1757: And likewiſe, That the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Perſons who ſhall, on or before the ſaid Thirtieth Day of September next, diſcover any Seaman or Seamen who ſhall conceal themſelves, ſo as ſuch Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majeſty's Service. Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themſelves accordingly.

W. Sharpe.

Cadiz, July 18. This Day Admiral Reggio returned into this Bay with the Spaniſh Squadron under his Command, and it is expected that ſome of the Ships will be laid up again.

Turin, July 26. The laſt Letters from Toulon confirm the Report of his Britannick Majeſty's Ship the St. Albans, having carried into Gibraltar, the Loire, a Frigate of 36 Guns, but pierced for 44, with two Polaccas loaded with Stores and Ammunition for Martinico.

Florence, July 29. Laſt Week anchored at Leghorn, His Britannick Majeſty's Ships the Monmouth, the Hon. Capt. Hervey, and the Lyme, from a Cruize they had made in the Channel of Malta and the Coaſt of Barbary, where Capt. Hervey drove a French Frigate, called the Roſe, on Shore, and obliged the French to ſet Fire to her, to prevent her falling into his Hands.

Whitehall, Auguſt 22.

Whitehall Treaſury Chambers, Dec. 1, 1757.

WHEREAS adhering to the King's Enemies, by giving to them Aid or Comfort, either within his Realm, or elſewhere, is High Treaſon, and the Concealment thereof is Miſpriſion of Treaſon;

And Whereas the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury have received Information, That a Loan of Money for that Purpoſe is at this Time negociating in this Kingdom; Their Lordſhips do hereby promiſe a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds to any Perſon, by whoſe Diſcovery any Subject of His Majeſty, or any Perſon reſiding within this Realm, ſhall be convicted of lending or advancing directly or indirectly, or of cauſing or procuring to be ſo lent or advanced, or of ſubſcribing for, or contributing to, or of ſolliciting or contracting for or remitting, either in Coin or Bullion, or by Bill or Bills of Exchange, or by any other Means whatſoever, any Sum or Sums of Money, to or for the Uſe or Purpoſe aforeſaid. The ſaid said Reward to be paid immediately on the Conviction of every such Offender, by the Solicitor of the Treasury, without Deduction, their Lordships having given Directions for the immediate Prosecution of such Offenders.

[Price Three-Pence.]

Admiralty-Office, August 8, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, having received authentick Information, that a Dutch Ship named the City of Rotterdam, whereof Warner Pieterson was Master, laden with different Kinds of Merchandize; and also with the Baggage, consisting of very valuable Effects, of the Marquis de Pignatellij, Minister from the Court of Spain to the Court of Denmark, and having likewise on Board his Household Steward, Confectioner, and Cook, and also the Coachman of the Danish Ambassador residing at Paris; and being bound from Rouen to Rotterdam, was, in the Course of her said Voyage, on the 30th Day of June last, boarded three several Times, by the Crews, or Parts of the Crews, of three different English Ships or Vessels, pretending to be Privateers; and that some of the Crew of one of the said English Vessels, (which had two Masts) went on Board the said Dutch Ship, about Six o'Clock in the Morning of the said Day, and after searching her, took and unlawfully carried away with them two Oars, one Boat Hook, and a Dutch Cheese: And that about Nine o'Clock the same Morning, Ten of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or one Mast Sloop) went armed with Cutlasses, Pistols and Hatchets, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Papers, they by Violence forced open the Hatchways, and went into the said Ship's Hold, and there broke open two Trunks belonging to the said Marquis de Pignatellij, wherein were rich Cloths, and laced Liveries, which they took and carried away, to their own Ship: And that about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon of the same Day, the Commander, who was a young Man, and wore a Gold laced Hat, together with some of the Crew of another of the said English Vessels, (being a Cutter, or single Mast Sloop, mounted with four Guns) came armed as aforesaid, on Board the said Dutch Ship, and after examining the Ship's Papers, and those of the Passengers, pretended the same were False and Counterfeit, and then went into the said Ship's Hold, and began to plunder the Effects there; and that whilst they were so doing, the Crew of the aforesaid English Vessel, which Boarded the said Dutch Ship about Nine o'Clock that Morning, returned again, and joined those who were then in the said Ship's Hold, and that then both the said Crews in Conjunction, committed very great Outrages, by breaking open all the said Marquis de Pignatellij's Cases, and Trunks, and taking and carrying away all the valuable Effects, which were in six of the said Cases and Trunks, and destroying or damaging the Rest of those Effects; and then falling upon his the said Minister's Officers, and beating them in a very cruel and shameful Manner, and stripping them of their Cloths, and carrying the same off, together with their Letters of Credit, and a Bill of Exchange.

Their Lordships therefore, in order to discover and bring to Justice, the Persons guilty of the Piratical Offences above-mentioned, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, without any Deduction, unto, or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders concerned in committing the Piracies abovementioned, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof: Which Reward shall be paid by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than, and except, the respective Commander or Commanders of any of the abovementioned English Ships or Vessels) who shall discover and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall be likewise entitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

J. Clevland.

Admiralty-Office, August 14, 1758.

MY Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty having received many repeated Complaints of divers outragious Acts of Piracy committed on Board great Numbers of neutral Ships, sailing in the English Channel, by the Crews of Ships and Vessels pretending to be English Privateers;

Their Lordships therefore, in order to detect and bring to Justice the Persons guilty of such Offences, in Violation of the Laws of Nations in general, and of this Kingdom in particular, are pleased to promise a Reward of FIVE HUNDRED POUNDS, unto or amongst such Person or Persons as shall, within three Months from this Time, discover any two or more of the Offenders guilty of any such Acts of Piracy as aforesaid, so as such Offenders shall be apprehended and duly convicted thereof; which Reward, shall be paid, clear of all Deductions whatsoever, by Samuel Seddon, Esq; Solicitor of the Admiralty, immediately after the Conviction of such Offenders.

And as a further Encouragement, any of the said Offenders, (other than and except the respective Commander or Commanders of any such Piratical Ships or Vessels) who shall discover, and prosecute to Conviction, any two or more of the said Offenders, shall likewise be intitled to His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

J. Clevland.

Bedford, August 15, 1758.

Whereas at a Meeting held at this Town on Tuesday the 18th of July last, in Pursuance of a former Advertisement, to receive the Names of such Gentlemen as were willing to accept of Commissions as Officers in the Militia of the County of Bedford, a sufficient Number did not then offer themselves, nor have since that Time offered to accept of Commissions in the said Militia, as would be requisite for the Battalion intended to have been raised in the said County; Notice is hereby given by His Majesty's Lieutenant, that all farther Proceedings for raising the Militia of the said County will be suspended until the 25th Day of March 1759; when a Meeting will be held at this Town to receive the Names of all such Persons as shall be then qualified and willing to accept of Commissions to serve in the said Militia, and to proceed in the farther Execution of the several Acts of Parliament for the better Ordering of the Militia Forces.

BEDFORD.

Burghley, August 12, 1758.

Whereas by an Advertisement, dated the 26th Day of June last, in the London Gazette, all Persons qualified to serve as Officers in the Militia Forces of the County of Rutland, according to the Directions of the Acts of Parliament for the better Ordering of the Militia Forces, &c. &c. and willing to accept Commissions, were desired to meet at the Crown Inn at Oakham, on the 11th Day of July last, in order to deliver in their Names, (specifying the Rank in which they were willing to serve) to His Majesty's Lieutenant of the said County, or such Person as he should appoint to receive the same: And whereas no Persons qualified, delivered in their Names at such Meeting; and His Majesty's Lieutenant of the said County has not been able to find, within one Month after the said Meeting, any Persons qualified and willing to accept the Commissions of Field-Officers, and Captains; These are therefore, according to the Directions of the Act of Parliament, to give Notice, that all farther Proceedings, in the Execution of the Provisions of the said Acts, are suspended until next Year.

EXETER.

Shobdon Court, August 18, 1758.

All Persons, qualified to serve as Officers of the Militia Forces of the County of Hereford, according to the Directions of the Acts of Parliament for the better Ordering of the Militia Forces, &c. and willing to accept of Commissions, are desired to meet at the Green Dragon Inn in Hereford, on Tuesday the 5th Day of September next, do deliver in their Names, (specifying the Rank in which they are willing to serve) to His Majesty's Lieutenant of the County of Hereford, &c. or to such Person as he shall appoint to receive the same.

BATEMAN.

Reading, Auguſt 14, 1758.

Whereas the Duke of St. Albans, His Majeſty's Lieutenant of the County of Berks, did, by Advertiſement in the London Gazette, and other Weekly News Papers uſually circulated in the ſaid County, deſire all Perſons, qualified to ſerve as Officers in the Militia of the ſaid County, and willing to accept of Commiſſions therein, to meet at the Town Hall at Reading, on this Day, in order that every Perſon ſo qualified, and willingly to accept any ſuch Commiſſion, might deliver his Name in Writing, or cauſe it to be delivered to His Majeſty's ſaid Lieutenant, or, in Caſe of his Abſence, to ſuch Perſon as ſhould be authorized by ſuch Lieutenant to receive the ſame, ſpecifying alſo the Rank in which he was willing to ſerve. And whereas Lord Henry Beauclerk, in the Abſence of the Duke of St. Albans, and authorized by him to receive the Names of Perſons qualified and willing to accept of Commiſſions in the ſaid Militia, did attend at the ſaid Meeting this Day, and ſeveral Gentlemen did appear and deliver in their Names to ſerve as Officers in the ſaid Militia; yet for the more effectual carrying into Execution the Acts of Parliament lately paſſed relating to the Militia, it is deſired that ſuch Perſons, who are qualified and willing to ſerve as Officers in the ſaid Militia, and have not already delivered in their Names, will deliver, or cauſe their Names to be delivered in at another Meeting to be held for that Purpoſe, at the Town Hall in Reading, on Tueſday the 5th Day of September next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon. H. BEAUCLERK.

Wincheſter, Auguſt 10, 1758.

Whereas a ſufficient Number of Gentlemen have not this Day offered to ſerve as Officers in the Militia of the County of Southampton; Therefore His Majeſty's Lieutenant for the ſaid County hereby gives Notice, That there will be a further Meeting at the Chequer Inn in the City of Wincheſter, on Thurſday the 1ſt of September next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, where ſuch Gentlemen, as are willing to accept of Commiſſions in the ſaid Militia, are deſired to deliver in their Names in Writing to the ſaid Lieutenant, or ſuch Perſon as ſhall be by him authorized to receive the ſame, ſpecifying alſo the Rank in which they are ſeverally willing to ſerve.

Durham, Auguſt 15, 1758.

Whereas a ſufficient Number of Gentlemen did not offer to ſerve as Officers for the Militia for the County of Durham, either at the Meeting held for that Purpoſe on the 11th Day of Auguſt inſtant, or at the General Meeting held here this Day; Therefore His Majeſty's Lieutenant for the ſaid County hereby gives Notice, that there will be another Meeting held at the Houſe of Mr. Lawrence Richardſon, being the Red Lyon in the City of Durham, on Thurſday the 7th Day of September next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon; when ſuch Gentlemen, as are willing to accept of Commiſſions in the ſaid Militia, are deſired to deliver in their Names in Writing to the ſaid Lieutenant, or, in his Abſence, to ſuch Perſon as he ſhall authorize to receive the ſame, ſpecifying alſo the Rank in which they are willing to ſerve.

DARLINGTON.
